

We want to hear YOUR radio features and live-to-air programs!

Applications for the NEMBC's 2009 Radioactive Youth Broadcasting Awards are now officially open. Young ethnic broadcasters from across Australia are invited to apply. The awards will be presented at this year's NEMBC Conference in Melbourne during the conference dinner on November 28th 2009.

There are two categories for which young broadcasters may nominate themselves:

1. The Multicultural/Ethnic Youth Program of the Year

This will be awarded to the submission with the best live-to-air program. For this category we are asking program presenters/producers to submit a CD with a recording of their live-to-air program.

Submissions will be judged on:

1. On-air presence
2. Flow of Program
3. Technical Ability

2. The Multicultural/Ethnic Youth Broadcaster of the Year

This award will go to the best audio feature. For this category we are asking program presenters/producers to submit a CD with a short audio feature (maximum 5-8mins) created by the broadcaster. Produce a story, feature interview or mini documentary on something you're passionate about in your community. Be creative!

Submissions will be judged on:

1. Script
2. Creativity
3. Technical Ability

Winners will receive:

The winners will be announced at the NEMBC Annual Conference Dinner on Saturday the 28th of November in Melbourne. They will receive a Certificate and a prize, as well as acknowledgement for their program and station in The Ethnic Broadcaster.

All entries should be submitted on CD in mp3 format.

Entries close Friday October 30th, 2009!

For more information or extra application forms please contact Rachael at youth@nembc.org.au or visit the NEMBC website www.nembc.org.au

Last year the NEMBC received a record number of entries from young broadcasters around the country. The winners were celebrated at the NEMBC Conference in Sydney.

The winner of the 2008 Multicultural and Ethnic Youth Broadcaster of the Year was German broadcaster, Lisa Lang., for her feature for SYN, Melbourne's youth station.

4EB Brisbane's multicultural youth program OxyGen received the 2008 award for Multicultural and Ethnic Youth Program of the Year.

We hope that this year's entries will be just as innovative and competitive!
